

```
from PIL import Image, ImageFilter from IPython.display import display

Load the image from the Colab environment
image_path = "image1.jpg"

try:
    im1 = Image.open(image_path)

    # Apply Unsharp Masking
    # radius: specifies the size of the blurring filter
    # percent: specifies the strength of the sharpening
    # threshold: controls the minimum brightness change to be sharpened
    im2 = im1.filter(ImageFilter.UnsharpMask(radius=3, percent=200, thresho

    # Display the results
    print("Original Image:")
    display(im1)
    print("\nSharpened Image (Unsharp Masking):")
    display(im2)

    # Convert to RGB mode before saving as JPEG to avoid OSError
    if im2.mode in ("RGBA", "P"): im2 = im2.convert("RGB")

    # Save the result
    im2.save('Unsharp_Masked_Image.jpg') print("\nSuccess: Image saved as Unsharp_Masked_Image.jpg") except FileNotFoundError: print(f"Error: '{image_path}' not found. Please ensure the image is up.

```

Original Image:

Sharpened Image (Unsharp Masking):

Success: Image saved as Unsharp_Masked_Image.jpg